

ATAdesk Privacy Policy

When you register for ATAdesk we ask for information, including your name, company name and address, e-mail address, and credit card information, that is used solely for provision of products and services, billing, identification and authentication, and improvement of our services, contacts, and research. This information is, under no circumstances, shared or sold to other organizations for commercial purposes. We have implemented comprehensive security to provide you the highest level of privacy and will not provide any third party with access to any information unless required to by law.

A cookie is a small amount of data, often including an anonymous unique identifier, sent to your browser from a Web site's computers and stored on your computer's hard drive. Cookies (non-permanent) are required to use the ATAdesk service; therefore users who disable their Web browser's ability to accept cookies will be able to browse our Web site but not able to successfully use the ATAdesk application. In case a permanent cookie is used ("Remember Me" checked), you can be certain that only ATAdesk will be able to read and use your cookie to identify your credentials each time you access the application.

ATAminds uses third-party vendors and hosting partners to provide the necessary hardware, software, networking, storage, and related technology required to run ATAdesk. Although ATAminds owns the code, databases, and all rights to the ATAdesk application, you retain all rights to your data.

ATAminds may periodically update this policy. We will notify you about significant changes in the way we treat personal information by sending a notice to the primary e-mail address specified in your ATAdesk primary account holder account or by placing a prominent notice on our site.

Any questions about this Privacy Policy should be e-mailed to support@atadesk.com.
